

to market, has simply gone right up during the past week, sales here being made here at 10c. The price of last week's ago and Liverpool has 20c. Higher in spite of the persistent holding-off. The August sale of a certain well known combination consisting of about 50 boxes, was sold at 10c on p.t., but said to be at 9c Monday, however, the sale of a fluent August was made at 10c. The holders are now at 10c. At the close of last week the holders here were at the Belleville location are now very well contracted to the end of season, at prices ranging from 10c. to 10c. Still in the foot of the market, private cables have been received from London stating "speculation is about stimu-
